DAHLIA LITHWICK

LEGAL JOURNALIST, WRITER, AND COMMENTATOR

Dahlia Lithwick, considered one of the best Supreme Court journalists in the country, is a senior editor at Slate, where she writes the “Supreme Court Dispatches” and “Jurisprudence” columns. Her work has appeared in the New York Times, Harper’s, The New Yorker, The Washington Post, and Commentary, among other places. She has appeared on CNN, ABC, The Colbert Report, and is a frequent guest on The Rachel Maddow Show.

PRO BONO PROGRAMS

KCBA’s Pro Bono Services strive to ensure that poverty never stands in the way of access to justice for the most vulnerable people in our community. Through our programs, over 1,400 volunteer attorneys in King County work to prevent homelessness, secure family safety, and resolve issues that threaten their homes, jobs and family stability. Last year, our Housing Justice Project, Family Law Programs, Neighborhood Legal Clinics and Volunteer Legal Services worked tirelessly to provide help to over 10,000 clients facing serious civil legal challenges that impact their ability to meet even the most basic needs for themselves and for their families.

Through your generous sponsorship, you give hope to people who face legal barriers they never thought they could overcome.

MINORITY LAW STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS

KCBF is one of the largest providers of minority law student scholarships in Washington. In 2016–17, KCBF distributed $140,000 in scholarship funds, which were, in turn, offered to over 60 minority law school students. Over 900 scholarships and nearly $2.5 million total have been awarded through this program since its inception in 1970, and over half of the scholarship recipients still practice in Washington state.
